Welcome to our 2025 Members' Guide

I'm delighted to bring you this year's Members' Guide. As a valued CPRE member you can access unique discounts to over seventy properties - with many that are new for this year such as the Bayfordbury Observatory in Hertfordshire and Norton House and Gardens in Cheshire. Whether you wish to stroll around a beautiful manor house or expand your knowledge at a museum or gallery, there's a wealth of wonders to explore.

To enjoy these discounts, on arrival simply show your valid CPRE Countryside Card, which is sent with your renewal letter.

Thanks to your support as a member, we've achieved many campaign successes over the past 12 months, from championing rural affordable housing to increasing uptake of solar panels on rooftops.

Once again, thank you so much for being a valued member of CPRE. Your membership really does make a difference, and your support has never been more vital in helping us make the case for a thriving and beautiful countryside.

I hope you enjoy visiting the properties featured in this guide. Although do please note that all opening dates and times are subject to change, so please check property website details or phone ahead before visiting.

With best wishes,

Roger Mortlock, CEO

PS: We'd love to know your thought on this year's guide. If you would like to share your feedback or have any queries in general, please do get in with touch us. You can call us on 020 7981 2870 or email us at supportercare@cpre.org.uk
