About the role

You will be a key member of the Philanthropy & Partnerships team who are responsible for raising funds from and communicating with our biggest supporters – including trusts, major donors and corporate partners.

You will be responsible for developing the major donor programme by identifying new prospective donors and effectively stewarding our existing donors, deepening their connection to our mission and encouraging them to give again.

You will support trust and corporate fundraising efforts by prospecting new potential supporters and helping to draft grant applications, proposals, and impact reports that showcase the work of the charity in a clear, engaging way.

You will also be responsible for administering CPRE's Centenary Development Board, key influential individuals who are helping us to achieve our centenary mission in time for our 100th birthday in 2026.

As well as donors, you'll work closely with the Head of Philanthropy & Partnerships and the Director of Fundraising and Supporters. This is an excellent opportunity for someone with some experience in HNWI and donor management to take their career further, working for a small but ambitious organisation operating in a unique space in the sector.

Working for CPRE

Salary

The salary will be £38,740.

The salary is for staff members based at the London office. Salaries for home-based staff in other areas of the country will be benchmarked to out-of-London levels.

Please note that our salaries are externally benchmarked, although we do take into account the level of skills, experience and ability the successful candidate brings.

The pay structure is reviewed regularly to ensure that it remains market competitive.

Hours of work

35 hours per week. Normal office hours are 9am to 5pm with one hour (unpaid) for lunch every day. Around the core hours of 10am to 4.30pm staff can flex their start and finish times. Occasional evening and weekend work is required, time off in lieu is provided and, dependent on role, there may be travel around England.

Place of work

Normal place of work is the national CPRE's office at 15-21 Provost Street, London, N1 7NH. Most office-based staff are now following a hybrid pattern, working part of the time in the office and part of the time at home.

Working culture

CPRE has an inclusive and friendly working culture.

We involve staff in setting the delivery plan and have a weekly all-staff meeting where information is shared. Staff are set annual objectives and have a performance review each year with joint feedback with their manager on their achievements and performance in the role. We hold monthly anchor days and regular staff conferences.

Holidays	25 days per calendar year, increasing by one day per full year of service up to a maximum of 30 days. Paid leave is also given for public holidays and three 'privilege' days, which are normally taken between Christmas and New Year. These entitlements are pro-rated for part-time staff.
Probation	The post will be subject to a six month probationary period. Probationary periods may be extended if further time is required.
Pension	CPRE offers a group personal pension policy with Aviva. CPRE will contribute to this policy monthly at a rate of seven per cent of current salary. CPRE will start making contributions from the beginning of the third month immediately following the start date. Staff members make a personal monthly contribution of a minimum of one per cent of salary. This percentage contribution may increase in the future.
Notice	During the probationary period, one week's notice of termination of employment is required from employer or employee. After satisfactory completion of your probationary period, four weeks' notice of termination of employment is required from employer or employee.
Employee assistance	CPRE provides access to a 24/7 GP service, an employee assistance programme offering both counselling and proactive health and fitness support and discount platforms that offer savings on a wide range of goods and services.
Life assurance	CPRE has an employee life assurance policy, which covers all staff during their employment with CPRE. The policy covers four times annual salary in the event of death in service (up to retirement age).
Flexible working	We offer hybrid working to office-based staff with the vast majority of staff able to work from home up to three days per week if they wish to do so. We have flexible start and finish times, subject to working core hours of 10.00am to 4.30pm.
Wellbeing day	All staff are entitled to take one wellbeing day each year, in addition to paid holidays, to focus on their wellbeing. These can be taken individually or as part of a team wellbeing activity.
Anchor days	We organise regular 'anchor days' to enable as many staff as possible to be in the office at the same time, fostering collaboration and networking.
Staff conferences	We hold two one-day, in-person staff conferences a year, offering further collaboration and networking opportunities to staff.

Volunteering days We encourage staff to volunteer with other organisations for up to two days each year (pro rata, this is paid leave).

About CPRE, the countryside charity

We are the countryside

We're passionate about making the countryside a better place for everyone to live, work and enjoy.

CPRE is the countryside charity that campaigns to promote, enhance and protect the countryside for everyone's benefit, wherever they live.

With a local CPRE in every county, we work with communities, businesses and government to find positive and lasting ways to help the countryside thrive - today and for generations to come. Our network of local groups: www.cpre.org.uk/about-us/who-we-are/local-and-regional-groups/

What we do:

We connect people with the countryside so that everyone can benefit from and value it.

We promote rural life to ensure the countryside and its communities can thrive.

We empower communities to improve and protect their local environment.

Through all our work we look at the role of our countryside in tackling the climate emergency, including seeking ways to increase resilience and reduce impact.

Our vision (what we want to achieve):

A beautiful and thriving countryside that enriches all our lives. Our vision can be found on our website: www.cpre.org.uk/about-us/who-we-are/our-vision/

Our mission (what we need to do to achieve our vision):

To promote, enhance and protect a thriving countryside for everyone's benefit.

Our values:

Open:	We are inclusive and respectful of everybody, no matter who they are or where they live. Our countryside is for everyone and so are we.
Trusted:	We use evidence, knowledge and experience to influence positive change. Others believe what we say because they know we can back it up.
Connected:	We value lasting and effective relationships. We invite and encourage collaboration to find what is best for the countryside we love.
Inspirational:	We bring ambition and determination to everything we do. We channel our passion to motivate others and encourage them to act.
